I, Elizabeth Davis, declare as follows:

1. I am 91 years of age. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained in this declaration, and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.
2. I owned a mobile home and rented a space at the Sherwood Mobile Home Park in Paradise, California. My home and possessions were completely destroyed in the Camp Fire on November 8, 2018.

3. At 9:30 in the morning, the manager knocked on the door and told me to get out because the fire was coming. It was pitch black even though it was morning. I grabbed my dog, Tinkerbell, and got into the car. There were flames on both sides. I saw cars on the side of the road on fire, and the traffic was so bad. I was only going five miles per hour. I drove through the flames on the road. Now, I don't want to drive anymore. I had to flee for my life, and I feel fortunate that I made it out alive.
4. Before the fire, I was independent. My life was uprooted and will never be the same. I live with my daughter now in Napa, California.
5. I had insurance on my mobile home at the time of the fire. However, my coverage was not enough to purchase another home, let alone replace my belongings. In my discussions with my insurer, the adjuster never disclosed that the insurance companies are seeking reimbursement from PG&E for the payments made to me and other fire victims. The insurance adjuster never told me that I had a right to seek compensation from PG&E. I am underinsured, and my claim is still open.
6. I do not recall ever receiving any notice from PG&E about filing a claim before the deadline or that there was money available to compensate me for my losses. I have been a PG&E customer for as long as I can remember, and I know what the PG&E envelope looks like. I don't think there was anything about my rights in any of their billing statements.
7. I thought I wasn't a victim because I got out alive. I never received any information that PG&E has billions of dollars available. I thought I was not qualified to make a claim.
8. I later found out PG&E went bankrupt. I also thought bankruptcy meant no money.
9. In August 2019, my daughter and I contacted a lawyer. I submit this declaration in the hopes that others in my situation will have more time to understand their rights,

1 as well.

2 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this
3 6th day of October, 2019 in Napa, California.
